Former Washingtonian Sued in Baltimore-Alimony and Fees. A dispatch from Baltimore, Md., says: Lily G. Barbour, by Attorney William G. Colton, has filed a bill in the circuit court against George D. Barbour, formerly of Washington, D. C., asking for an absolute divorce and alimony. Judge Dennis signed an order allowing Mrs. Barbour $25 per week alimony and counsel fees of $250 unless cause be shown to the contrary by October 5 next. The bill recites that the parties were married February 20, 1900, in Washington, D. C., and lived together until September 12 last, and alleges that the defendant has been guilty of unfaithfulness.

Mr. Barbour is stated to be worth about $100,000 and having an income of $500 per month from real estate owned by him in Washington, D. C. Mr. Barbour was seen at the Belvedere Hotel this afternoon by The Star correspondent. He said he had not yet determined what action he would take in regard to his wife's suit. He is a member of the real estate and insurance firm of James F. Barbour, 520 8th street northwest, Washington, D. C., but has resided here for the past five years at 2317 North Charles street until a fortnight ago, when, he said, Mrs. Barbour and himself had agreed to disagree. He is a member of the Army and Navy and Chevy Chase Country clubs of Washington and comes from the Barbours of Barboursville, Va. Mrs. Barbour, prior to marriage, was Miss Lily D. Griffith of Montgomery county, Md.

Mr. Barbour, it is stated, is a near relative of late United States Senator John S.

Barbour of Virginia. Mrs. Barbour is understood to have formerly resided in Prince George's county, Md., before her marriage.

Sergius Appointed Inspector General. A cablegram from St. Petersburg last night says: The emperor has appointed the Grand Duke Sergius Michaelovitch to the newly created post of inspector general of artillery. The appointment practically confers on the grand duke the charge of the whole artillery expert, especially in quick-firing guns, of which his palace contains a complete collection. The lack of artillery, which has hampered the Russian operations throughout the campaign, will certainly be the grand duke the charge of the whole artillery of the Russian army, although his father, the aged Grand Duke Michael, retains the nominal title of grand master of ordnance. Grand Duke Sergius is only thirty-five years old and won his promotion to the rank of major general of artillery by sheer merit. He is a tireless worker and is recognized as the leading Russian artillery expert especially in guide firms.
